BYLAWS
of the
TEXAS BUSINESS AND COMMERCE
POLITICAL ACTION COMMITTEE

• ARTICLE I •
NAME AND DEFINITION

The name of this Committee is Texas Business and Commerce Political Action Committee ("BACPAC,") sponsored by the Texas Association of Business & Chambers of Commerce (the "Association.") It is a voluntary, non-profit, unincorporated committee of individual members of the business community and is not affiliated with any political party.

• ARTICLE II • PURPOSES

The purposes of BACPAC are:

1. To encourage and strive for the improvement of government by advocating and promoting active participation in the political process by Texas businessmen and women.
2. To promote political education in the Texas business community to increase understanding and appreciation for how the political process impacts the actions of government and the shaping of public policy, as it pertains to business issues.
3. To assist members of the Texas business community in organizing for more effective political action.
4. To uphold the tradition of individual liberty, competitive free enterprise and support of the rights guaranteed by the Constitution.
5. To establish and encourage constituent relationships and communication between Association members and elected officials.
6. To solicit contributions from members and make political contributions on behalf of BACPAC to candidates for elective office, as permitted by law.
